

We had an author visit us, Sean Perkins, who shared a reading of his book - Oscar and Ben. It was really interesting to meet a real life author in person!

We hopped on a plane and explored both a polar region and a country near the equator.

The Bigger Picture

Hawthorn - Spring Term

All Creatures Great and Small

Using magnifying glasses we investigated plants during Science Week!

We used clay and paint to create our own model penguins.