Issue 4
Wednesday 20th October

Bible quote of the week: "Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, 'Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?' Jesus answered, 'I tell you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times.' Matthew 18:21-22.

Online Safety Notice

At the moment we are noticing an increase in playground incidents involving games imitating the new adult series 'Squid Game', which contains unsuitable content for children.

The following website contains information, that as parents, you will need to know:

https://nationalonlinesafety.com/wakeupwednesday/squid-game-trending-across-platforms-what-parents-need-to-know?fbclid=IwARIAWi_CKGHEWnjTjHZRnVulSSpgi-nZbUzxd4nVL_F6uqqzqITDhumSea4

As a parent or carer, keep a watchful eye on the content that your children are viewing. Speak to them openly and chat about how they have been spending time on their devices; let them ask questions, too. Ensure that the parental controls are activated on your child's device and that age-restricted child profiles are properly set up on any on-demand services available through the family TV (such as Netflix, in this case) to prevent inappropriate content being streamed.

If you see your child replicating the challenges from the show or hear them talking about scenes and characters from Squid Game, it would be a timely opportunity to discuss with them that the programme is not intended for children, that much of the content would be inappropriate for their age, and that the violence in the series is very realistic and often upsetting.

Again, we need to work together to keep our children safe. Thank you for your support in this.

Bullying Awareness

Parent's Workshop and Coffee Morning
Tuesday 16th November 9.00- 10.30am

All Welcome – this is a brilliant opportunity to gain further understanding of how, as a school, we approach and deal with bullying incidents should they ever arise. We will also be looking at the definition of bullying, and ways to support our children in being assertive and confident.

Date for your diary : Anti-Bullying Week is 15th-19th November

Reading

"If you are going to get anywhere in life you have to read a lot of books." Roald Dahl.

Children are given new reading books each Monday and are expected to read a minimum of 3 times a week. You can make a huge difference! Parents are the most important educators in a child's life – even more important than their teachers – and it's never too early to start reading together.

Attendance and Punctuality

Persistent absence and lateness will affect a child's achievement and progress in school. Comprehensive research shows that there is a direct link between a child's level of school attendance and their level of school attainment.

As a parent it is your legal responsibility to ensure your child receives a suitable full time education.

It is your responsibility that your child attends school each day and is on time.

It is important to set the expectation of good attendance right from the beginning of school so children grow up with 'good habits'.

Children must arrive between 8.45-8.55am.

After 8.55am your child will be marked as late.

Times Tables Rock Stars

It would be a good use of screen time for your child to visit TTRS to practise their times tables.

NUMBOTS

Numbots is also available for younger children as part of our TTRS subscription. Login in through TTRS to access this.

Please note we return to school on Monday 1st November 2021.

Have a lovely half-term.
