

Reading in families

Sharing a book with your child should be fun. It's a time for closeness, laughing and talking together - and it can also give children a flying start in life and help them become lifelong readers.

We understand that sometimes children can be reluctant about reading or that sometimes parents might not feel that confident about how to read with their children. Don't worry - there's no right or wrong way to enjoy a story together! But if you'd like some tips, here's some information to help you out.

Click on the links below

<https://www.booktrust.org.uk/books-and-reading/tips-and-advice/reading-tips/>

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zbxby>